1. A military vehicle repair shop was established in the beginning of 1953 at Cinkota (Q48/H62). The plant is located on the right side of the highway going from Budapest to Gödöllő.
2. The vehicle repair shop is primarily concerned with the repair of trucks.¹ The machinery is allegedly the best available in Hungary and had been selected from the confiscated property of private concerns. There are 200 skilled workers at the plant who had formerly been experts in private industries.
